Instructor Bio:

Matt Palamara was born and raised in Eufaula, Alabama, and has been drawn to cooking ever since he first roasted marshmallows on a stick in Cub Scouts. He moved to Gulf Shores in 2003 to go to culinary school at Faulkner State's Gulf Coast Culinary Institute, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2005. Palamara helped open Cosmo's as Sous Chef in 2006, and two years later was selected to be on the opening management staff for Cobalt Restaurant. Matt was promoted to Executive Chef of Cobalt Restaurant in 2010 and held that job for seven years during which the restaurant was voted Best Seafood in Alabama and Best Brunch in Alabama. He has competed twice in the World Food Championships, placing 12th in the world in the seafood category in 2019.

In 2017, Palamara applied for the culinary instructor position at Coastal Alabama Community College. He has been in that position to this date, sharing his passion for food and the hospitality industry through helping young culinarians develop their skills and professionalism. He lives in Gulf Shores with his wife, Lindsay, and their two sons.
